Friends 2011 Authors and Artists Recognition & Reception

Deadline for nominations: Friday, Feb. 18, 5 p.m.

Each year, The Friends of the University Libraries recognizes members of the University community for their scholarly publications and artistic achievements. Names and scholarly products of the 2009 honorees are posted at <http://www.bgsu.edu/colleges/library/about/page55209.html>. We would appreciate your assistance in identifying worthy individuals or nominating yourself for recognition of accomplishments that occurred in 2010.

Retired faculty and staff are eligible for nomination.

During the past 24 years, The Friends has publicly expressed appreciation to more than 1,000 BGSU faculty and staff for their important contributions to their disciplines, the culture, and the University. Honorees will be honored Library Week.

We are asking you to nominate individual(s) from within your department or area or to nominate yourself by completing the nomination form, which is available on the Friends web site <http://www.bgsu.edu/colleges/library/about/page40915.html>. Self-nominations are acceptable. If individuals from your area submit self-nominations, we might contact you for verification of their eligibility.

When you nominate individuals(s) from your department or area or nominate yourself, please take special note of the following:

- * Review the attached criteria for recognizing BGSU authors, artists, etc.
- * Ensure that each nominee was employed by BGSU at some time during the period from Jan. 1, 2010, to Dec. 31, 2010, and that the activity being nominated falls within the same period.

As noted on the nomination form, please send completed electronic forms to libadmin@bgsu.edu.

Janet B. Parks, President, The Friends of the University Libraries Board: Deb Boyce, Kay Flowers, Robert Graham, Milt Hakel, Candess Hodges, Beth Hofer, Kari Johnson, Daniel Klein, Juli McCarroll, Elaine Paulette, Marilyn Shrude
