

any other person may become an honorary member by receiving a two-thirds vote of a society and the approval of the faculty.

WOMEN'S LEAGUE

The Women's League is a self-government association of the women students of the College. The object of the association is to regulate all matters pertaining to the student life of its members which do not fall under the immediate jurisdiction of the faculty.

All women upon matriculation into the College automatically become members of the League, and unless excused by the Dean of Woman, are subject to its constitution and regulations.

GLEE CLUBS AND ORCHESTRA

There are two glee clubs, one for men and one for women, which meet once each week for the study of part songs. Students with good voices and ability to read music are eligible. The clubs furnish music for special occasions and give at least one concert each year.

Students who have sufficient ability may join the college orchestra which meets once per week.

COUNTRY LIFE CLUB

This club is open to the entire student body. It is conducted on the plan proposed by the National Society. An attempt is made to find the best way for prospective teachers to develop community interest and foster the growth of wholesome school sentiment in rural centers. The regular programs are given by the club members who have investigated some interesting phases of country life. Specialists in rural life subjects appear before the club from time to time.

ATHLETIC ORGANIZATIONS

The College is a member of the Northwestern Ohio Inter-Collegiate Association. Teams are formed in football, basketball, baseball, tennis, and track athletics, and contests are held with other colleges of this association.

When a student becomes a candidate for a position on any team, it is presumed that he does so with the knowledge and consent of his parents. Every precaution is taken to safeguard the health of students participating in these games. In the event of injury, the college can only guarantee first aid treatment.

DEBATING AND DRAMATICS

Intercollegiate debates are arranged by the Debating Class and are held annually. Two teams, one affirmative and one negative, are chosen from preliminary contests. These contests are open to both men and women students who have taken or who are pursuing the course offered in debating, or who have had equivalent training. Students who make the teams may be allowed an additional hour of credit under certain conditions.

The Drama Class meets two hours a week throughout the year and gives plays twice each semester, care being taken to present only the best of classical and modern drama.

SUMMER SESSION

The Summer Session is an integral part of the academic year of the Normal College. As soon as adequate funds can be provided, the college year will be divided into quarters, and the summer quarter will then take the place of what is now called the Summer Session. In the summer of 1924, the

Ohio; Member of Ohio State Board of School Examiners; Head of Department of Rural Education, State Normal College, Bowling Green, Ohio, 1915—

ETHYL M. BLUM
Librarian

A. B., University of Michigan; B. L. S., Library School, University of Illinois. Cataloguer, Illinois State Historical Library, Springfield, Ill.; Librarian, Philosophy, Psychology, and Education Seminars, University of Illinois; Librarian, State Normal College, Bowling Green, Ohio, 1921—

FLORENCE BROOKS
Critic Teacher

Certificate, Two-year Training Course, University of Chicago; Student, Summer Sessions, University of Chicago. Teacher in Dundee, Ill. and Sioux City, Ia.; Critic Teacher, fourth grade, State Normal College, Bowling Green, Ohio, 1922—

JAMES W. CARMICHAEL
Instructor in English

A. B., University of Michigan; Graduate Student, New York University and University of Michigan. Statistical Supervisor and Personal Officer, Receipt and Disbursement Division, Bureau War Risk Insurance, Washington, D. C. Instructor in English, State Normal College, Bowling Green, Ohio, 1919—

OLIVER PERRY CLUTTS
Extension Instructor

B. S., Ohio University; A. M., Columbia University; Master's Diploma in Administration, Teachers College; Research Student, Teachers College. Teacher in rural and village schools; Teacher in High Schools; Instructor in Mathematics, University School, Cleveland; District Superintendent, Centralized Schools, Portage County; Superintendent of Schools, Sugar Grove; Instructor in Grammar Grade Methods, State College for Women, North Carolina; High School Inspector, State Normal College, Bowling Green, Ohio, 1920-1921; Extension Instructor, 1921—

DANIEL J. CROWLEY
Department of Industrial Arts

Diploma in Elementary Education, Special Diploma in Industrial Arts and Mechanical Drawing, State Normal and Training School, Oswego, N. Y.; B. S., Columbia University; Diploma in Supervision of Industrial Arts, Teachers College, Columbia University. Teacher in rural and village schools; Teacher of Industrial Arts, Newark, N. J.; Teacher in Evening Trade School, New York City; Head of Department of Industrial Arts, State Normal College, Bowling Green, Ohio, 1919—

MAUDE DOANE
Critic Teacher

Diploma, Bowling Green State Normal College; Student, Summer Sessions, Columbia University and Chicago University. Teacher, Bowling Green City Schools; Critic Teacher, fifth grade, State Normal College, Bowling Green, Ohio, 1920—

HARRIET S. HAYWARD
Supervisor of Practice Teaching

Four-year Diploma, Massachusetts State Normal School; B. S., A. M., Teachers College, Columbia University; Summer Work, Harvard University. Teacher in City Normal Training School, Holyoke and Haverhill, Mass.; Assistant Superintendent of Schools, Brockton, Mass.; Supervisor of Academic Department, Hampton Institute, Hampton, Virginia; Supervisor of Practice Teaching, State Normal College, Bowling Green, Ohio, 1915—

PEARL HEISER
Instructor in Piano

Private Piano and Organ Pupil of C. Max Ecker, Toledo; Organ Pupil of Dr. William C. Carl and John Hammond, New York. Teacher of Piano and Organ; Instructor in Piano, State Normal College, Bowling Green, Ohio, 1922—

LAURA A. HESTON
Department of Home Economics

B. S., Ohio State University. Instructor in Department of Agricultural Extension, Ohio State University; Head of Department of Home

IRENE C. MOOERS

Instructor in Voice

Special Music Student, Lake Erie College; Private Pupil of Eleanor Meredith Stock, Toledo, and Royal D. Hughes, Findlay College. Teacher of Voice; Instructor in Voice, State Normal College, Bowling Green, Ohio, 1922—

EDWIN L. MOSELEY

Department of Biology

A. M., University of Michigan. Teacher of Science, High School, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Teacher of Science, High School, Sandusky, Ohio. Fellow of Steere Scientific Expedition to the Philippines; Fellow of American Association for the Advancement of Science; Secretary, Ohio Academy of Science; President, Ohio Academy of Science; Head of Department of Biology, State Normal College, Bowling Green, Ohio, 1914—

CAROLINE NIELSEN

Department of Foreign Language

A. B., A. M., University of Nebraska; Studied in Europe and in The Berlitz School of Foreign Language, Chicago. Head of Latin Department, Kearney High School, Nebraska; Principal of Wahoo High School, Nebraska; Instructor in Joliet Junior College. Member of Phi Beta Kappa. Head of Department of Foreign Language, State Normal College, Bowling Green, Ohio, 1918—

JAMES ROBERT OVERMAN

Department of Mathematics

A. B., Indiana University; A. M., Columbia University; Master's Diploma, Teachers College, Columbia University. Principal, High School, Freelandville, Ind.; Head of Mathematics Department, High School, Kokomo, Ind.; Instructor, Shortridge High School, Indianapolis, Ind.; Instructor, Horace Mann School, Teachers College; Instructor, University of Pennsylvania Summer Session. Member of Phi Beta Kappa, Mathematics Association of America, American Association for the Advancement of Science. Head of Department of Mathematics, State Normal College, Bowling Green, Ohio, 1914—

CHARLES F. REEBS

Instructor in Education

Diploma, Western State Normal College, Kalamazoo, Mich.; A. B., University of Michigan; Bachelor's diploma, Department of Education, University of Michigan; Graduate Student, University of Michigan. Teacher in rural and village schools; Teacher in public schools, Kalamazoo, Mich.; Superintendent of Schools, Athens, Mich., Colon, Mich., Plymouth, Mich.; Extension Instructor, State Normal College, Bowling Green, Ohio, 1918-1921, and Instructor in Education, 1921—

ALICE MARGARET ROTH

Critic Teacher

Diploma, State Normal College, Bowling Green, Ohio; Student Summer Sessions, Columbia University. Teacher in rural schools, and in Findlay and Bowling Green City Schools; Critic Teacher, sixth grade, State Normal College, Bowling Green, Ohio, 1921-1923.

MAUDE F. SHARP

Dean of Women

B. S., National Normal University; A. B., A. M., Syracuse University. Teacher in rural schools; Director, County Normal School, Waterford, O.; Teaching Fellow, Syracuse University; Dean of Women, State Normal College, Bowling Green, Ohio, 1918—

ALLEN W. SNYDER

Instructor in Physical Education

A. B., College of Wooster. Teacher and Athletic Coach, New Philadelphia, Ohio; Instructor in Physical Education, State Normal College, Bowling Green, Ohio, 1922-1923.

IRENE M. STEELE

Extension Instructor

Diploma, Maryland State Normal School; B. S., Teachers College, Columbia University; Diploma in Elementary Supervision, Teachers College, Columbia University; Graduate Student, Columbia University. Teacher in rural and elementary schools in Maryland; Teacher, Horace—any other person may become an honorary member by receiving a two-thirds vote of a society and the approval of the faculty.

WOMEN'S LEAGUE

The Women's League is a self-government association of the women students of the College. The object of the association is to regulate all matters pertaining to the student life of its members which do not fall under the immediate jurisdiction of the faculty.

All women upon matriculation into the College automatically become members of the League, and unless excused by the Dean of Woman, are subject to its constitution and regulations.

GLEE CLUBS AND ORCHESTRA

There are two glee clubs, one for men and one for women, which meet once each week for the study of part songs. Students with good voices and ability to read music are eligible. The clubs furnish music for special occasions and give at least one concert each year.

Students who have sufficient ability may join the college orchestra which meets once per week.

COUNTRY LIFE CLUB

This club is open to the entire student body. It is conducted on the plan proposed by the National Society. An attempt is made to find the best way for prospective teachers to develop community interest and foster the growth of wholesome school sentiment in rural centers. The regular programs are given by the club members who have investigated some interesting phases of country life. Specialists in rural life subjects appear before the club from time to time.

ATHLETIC ORGANIZATIONS

The College is a member of the Northwestern Ohio Inter-Collegiate Association. Teams are formed in football, basketball, baseball, tennis, and track athletics, and contests are held with other colleges of this association.

When a student becomes a candidate for a position on any team, it is presumed that he does so with the knowledge and consent of his parents. Every precaution is taken to safeguard the health of students participating in these games. In the event of injury, the college can only guarantee first aid treatment.

DEBATING AND DRAMATICS

Intercollegiate debates are arranged by the Debating Class and are held annually. Two teams, one affirmative and one negative, are chosen from preliminary contests. These contests are open to both men and women students who have taken or who are pursuing the course offered in debating, or who have had equivalent training. Students who make the teams may be allowed an additional hour of credit under certain conditions.

The Drama Class meets two hours a week throughout the year and gives plays twice each semester, care being taken to present only the best of classical and modern drama.

SUMMER SESSION

The Summer Session is an integral part of the academic year of the Normal College. As soon as adequate funds can be provided, the college year will be divided into quarters, and the summer quarter will then take the place of what is now called the Summer Session. In the summer of 1924, the