

BUILDING STRENGTH

Small Grants for Research and Creative Activities (SGR-CA)

Purpose

Small grants of up to $1000 are available to support research and creative activities that do not directly lead to the submission of an external grant proposal but provide faculty members with resources they need to advance their scholarly or creative agenda. Use of these funds can include, but are not limited to, the purchase of data subscriptions, software purchases, support for archival research, publications costs, and small equipment repairs. SGR-CA funds may only be used to support BGSU faculty, staff, or students. The Small Grants for Research and Creative Activities are meant to support work occurring in any discipline at the university.

Eligibility

All Bargaining Unit Faculty Members are eligible to apply for these grants in accordance with Article 23, Section 7 of the Collective Bargaining Agreement effective July 1, 2022 through June 30, 2024.

Application Deadline

Grant funds will be made available for each semester of the academic year and will be awarded until funds expire for that semester. Faculty are encouraged to contact OSPR before submitting a request to verify that funds remain available.
