MONDAY, APRIL 15

Sustainability & Storytelling Panel

3 PM - 4 PM | Olscamp 113

Dive into the heart of environmentalism with a twist—where narrative meets nature, and storytelling sparks sustainable change. This Earth Month, we uncover the untapped potential of stories to inspire a sustainable mindset across diverse audiences. Join us for a dynamic exploration of how storytelling can catalyze environmental action! Featuring esteemed panelists from BGSU departments and the broader community, including History, Chemistry, English, SEES, and Alex Goetz ('13) of the award-winning Running Wild Media, and more! Free & open to all.

Wednesday, April 10

Annual Eco Fair

11 AM - 2 PM | Outside Education Bldg. - North

Come check out environmental information tables and displays! See live animals (Bald Eagle, Hawks, Owls, reptiles, flying squirrel, etc.), try slacklining, grab a free plant, see electric vehicles, and more! Location is the outdoor corridor between Central Hall & the Education Bldg. Free and open to everyone.

SATURDAY, APRIL 13

Bloomfest

5 PM - 9 PM | University Hall Lawn

Free live music, food, educational tables, games, fire pit tables and more! Don't miss this annual event co-hosted by Environmental Action Group and MIC!

Rain Location: Maurer Center atrium

TUES/THURS, APRIL 9, 16, and 18
