The Politix Group

Allow us to introduce ourselves, we are the organization, the Politix Group. We are an independently run private organization whose purpose is to increase knowledge and understanding of the political process with the purpose of inspiring early involvement and activism at the local, state and federal levels of government. All our members are ourselves young professionals either formerly or currently involved in politics

We have a unique understanding and enthusiasm for government and wish to contribute something of our knowledge back to the students. While we fully appreciate that most educational institutions already possess an internship program, we feel that our direct involvement in politics would enable us to help students more easily obtain internship positions in local, state and federal government. Our only motivation is our passion for politics and our idealism to make the country a better place by helping others who will then pass along their knowledge and advice.
