R. Wisneski
rwisnes@bgsu.edu
LTL
Jerome Library, Bowling Green S.U.

1. State in one sentence your TOPIC. What is your paper generally about?
   - Example: "Distance learning for students/teachers."

2. State in one sentence your THESIS. What are you arguing or analyzing about the topic?
   - Example: "Online courses should only be an option to students with a strong G.P.A; not all students should be permitted to take courses on-line."

3. LIST any and all information you believe you need to cover in discussing your topic in-depth.

4. Brainstorm all possible words and word phrases you can use for doing a search on this topic:

TERM/PHRASE 1		TERM/PHRASE 2
	AND AND AND
	AND
	AND
	AND
	AND
	AND	