Call for Abstracts: NHATS Early Results Workshop – April 25-26, 2013
The National Health and Aging Trends Study (NHATS) is a new national study of functioning in later life (see http://www.nhats.org/). With support from the National Institute on Aging, an NHATS Early Results Workshop is planned as a forum for investigators from diverse research perspectives to present findings from the NHATS Round 1 Public Use File. Learn more about the workshop format, topics of interest, and how to apply at this link: http://www.nhats.org/scripts/nhatsERW.htm. The workshop will be held at Johns Hopkins School of Public Health. Participants will receive $1500 honoraria and travel reimbursement. Abstracts are due by December 1, 2012.
