New Social Science Journal from the Russell Sage Foundation

RSF has launched a new social science journal, RSF: The Russell Sage Foundation Journal of the Social Sciences. RSF is intended to promote cross-disciplinary collaborations on timely topics of interest to social scientists and other academic researchers, policymakers, and the public at large. Each issue will be thematic in nature and will focus on a specific research question or area of interest. RSF will be a peer-reviewed, open-access journal of original empirical research by both established and emerging scholars. The first issue is scheduled to be published in fall 2015.
