

CFDR Update: March 20, 2015

Unlocking the NIH and NSF Grant Review Process – Today, March 20th

Friday, March 20, 1:00-3:00 pm

Pallister Conference Room, Jerome Library

Drs. Susan Brown and Daniel Wiegmann will lead a brief discussion of the grant review process and then chair a mock NIH and NSF review of actual applications. Seating is limited, so we request only faculty attend and RSVP to Laura Straley (lstrale@bgsu.edu) by March 13. If you are interested but cannot make it, please email cfd@bgsu.edu to request the handout materials.

Joint meeting for the Add Health Working Group and Crime & Violence in Context Working Group – March 24th

Andrea Krieg and Jessica Ziegler will present, "The Built Environment and Neighborhood Resources' Associations with Adolescent Deviant Behaviors" on Tuesday, March 24th, at 10:00 a.m. in the CFDR Conference Room, Williams Hall

CFDR Research Symposium on Intimate Partner Violence - March 25thRESEARCH ADVANCES IN INTIMATE PARTNER VIOLENCEGuest Speakers: Deborah M. Capaldi, Peggy C. Giordano, Bruce G. TaylorWednesday, March 25th, 8:30 am-2:45 pm

201 Bowen-Thompson Student Union

Pre-registration is required. Please reply to this email to pre-register.

Workshop: An Information Session on the Ohio Longitudinal Data Archive (OLDA)

Friday, April 10, 1:00-3:00 pm

247D Technology Building computer lab

Lisa Neilson of the Ohio Education Research Center will present an overview of the OLDA, what it is and how it is being used, and then discuss the data access in detail. The OLDA contains de-identified records for all Ohio residents who have attended public education and training institutions, earned wages in Ohio, or used public services in Ohio. Please rsvp to the CFDR office as space is limited: cfd@bgsu.edu.

PAA Poster PresentersFinal posters should be sent to Lesley Wadsworth by April 20th.