

CFDR Update: April 10, 2015

Debugging Workshop – Monday, April 13

Instructor: Hsueh-Sheng Wu

Monday, April 13, 12:30-1:30 pm

CFDR/NCFMR Conference Room, 7C Williams

This workshop is intended to help students figure out common programming errors in Stata and other programs. Specifically, it will help identify syntax errors (which will prevent programs from running) and logical errors (where variables are inaccurately constructed).

Speaker Series – Wednesday, April 15

Cohort Changes in the Association between Timing of First Birth and Educational Attainment

Dr. Christine Percheski

Department of Sociology, Northwestern University

Wednesday, April 15, 12:30-1:30 pm

Bowen-Thompson Student Union, Room 207

Welcome to Philip Stinson and Adam Watkins, New CFDR Affiliates

The CFDR welcomes two new research affiliates, Dr. Philip Stinson and Dr. Adam Watkins, both of the Criminal Justice Program at BGSU.

Good Luck to Monica Longmore and Peggy Giordano!

Dr. Monica Longmore submitted a grant proposal to the National Institute of Justice titled “Parents' Influence on Children's Exposure to Violence and Indicators of Well-Being.” Dr. Peggy Giordano also submitted a proposal to NIJ, “Mechanisms Underlying Cessation of IPV Perpetration: A Longitudinal Study of the Desistance Process.”

OLDA Workshop Cancelled

The workshop on the Ohio Longitudinal Data Archive (OLDA) that was scheduled for April 10th has been cancelled and will be rescheduled in the summer.

PAA Workshop – From Research to Policy: Learn and Practice Writing to Reach Policy Audiences

D'Vera Cohn (Pew Research Center) and Dr. Robert Stephenson (University of Michigan) will facilitate the workshop. The workshop is designed to help researchers engaging with population and demographic issues translate their findings into a format that reaches policymakers and other non-academic audiences. The workshop will take place on May 2, 2015 from 2:00 - 3:30 pm PDT. RSVP here to attend.
