

CFDR Update: April 17, 2015

Speaker Series – Wednesday, April 22

Race, Perceived Discrimination, & Motivation

Dr. Gary Oates

Department of Sociology, Bowling Green State University

Wednesday, April 22, 12:30-1:30 pm

Bowen-Thompson Student Union, Room 207

Congratulations to Susan Brown!

BGSU has named Dr. Susan Brown a Professor of Research Excellence for being an exceptionally productive research scholar and helping to shape the national discourse on the contemporary American family. Read more at this link.

Call for Abstracts: National Conference on Health Statistics

The CDC's National Center for Health Statistics is accepting poster abstracts for this year's Poster Session at the their conference in the Washington, DC area. Conference registration is free and attendees will have the opportunity to meet and talk with NCHS staff from all surveys and programs. Abstract submissions are invited across all topic areas within the field of public health and statistics. For additional information or to submit an abstract, visit: <http://www.cdc.gov/nchs/events/2015nchs/>. Deadline: May 8.

Two Free Workshops at the PAA Annual Meeting Sponsored by Minnesota Population Center

- Population and Ecological Data Tools and Services: An Introduction to working with Terra Populus and DataONE, Wednesday, April 29, 9 AM-12 PM, Aqua 307
This workshop will introduce participants to a suite of openly accessible data, tools and resources. Registration is not required.
 - New IPUMS and MPC Microdata: Hands-on workshop using U.S. and global census and survey data, Wednesday, April 29, 9 AM-4 PM, Aqua 310ab
This workshop will provide an overview of the IPUMS and MPC microdata projects, with a focus on the newly available census and survey data. For more information and workshop registration, please visit the PAA annual meeting website.
-

PAA Posters Due

Final posters are due to Lesley Wadsworth on Monday, April 20th