

CFDR Update: May 27, 2016

Call for Papers: First Annual PSID Data User Conference

The Panel Study of Income Dynamics (PSID) has announced a call for papers, inviting submissions on any topic that uses data from PSID or one of its major supplements, such as the Child Development Supplement, the Transition into Adulthood Supplement, the Disability and Use of Time supplement, the Family Rosters and Transfers Module, or the Childhood Retrospective Circumstances Study. Scholars from all disciplines are welcome. The conference will be held September 15-16, 2016. Proposals will be accepted until June 17 through the online application portal.

Webinar to Discuss Findings from a Multiyear Study of Law Enforcement Officers Arrested – June 23rd

CFDR Affiliate Philip Stinson and colleague John Liederbach (Criminal Justice) recently concluded a National Institute of Justice-funded study on police crime and the report will be released by the NIJ June 6. They will share findings from their study in a June 23 webinar, "Police Integrity Lost: A Webinar to Discuss Findings from a Multiyear Study of Law Enforcement Officers Arrested." Registration for the webinar is available at <http://www.bgsu.edu/pilwebinar>

Introduction to Event History Analysis – Monday, June 20th

Instructor: Hsueh-Sheng Wu

Monday, June 20, 11:30 am - 12:30 pm

CFDR Conference Room, 7C Williams Hall