CS 2900: CO-OP PREPARATION

Semester Hours: 1.0

Coordinator: Jong Kwan "Jake" Lee

Text: N/A

Author(s): N/A

Year: N/A

SPECIFIC COURSE INFORMATION

Catalog Description:

Course type: REQUIRED

SPECIFIC COURSE GOALS

- I can search for jobs related to the computing profession
- I can approach job interviews in a professional and well-prepared manner
- I can understand professional ethics and etiquette
- I can write job-appropriate resumes

STUDENT OUTCOMES ADDRESSED BY THIS COURSE

- B.4 Understand the impact of professional, ethical, and social issues in computing
- B.6 Communicate effectively with a range of audiences using oral, written, and electronic mediums
- B.7 Contribute effectively to professional teams in order to accomplish a common goal

LIST OF TOPICS COVERED

- General Introduction
- Benefits of Internships (Presentations by internship students)
- Internship Office Mechanics and Services
- Introduction to Resume Development
- Group Critiques of Resumes
• Career Options in Computer Science (Employer Presentation)
• Job Search Strategies
• Job Search on the Internet
• Using the Career Resource Library
• Interviews- The Employer's Perspective
• More Interviewing Strategies
• Mock Interviews
• Learning Objectives and Assessment
• Professional Ethics
• Transition from School to Work