Women's Studies Major/Minor Advising/Information Session
On January 24 Women's Studies, Popular Culture and Ethnic Studies held an informational session to answer questions about their programs and requirements. The coordinators of each program, along with several instructors and professors, were in attendance and met individually with students.