MANIPULATION

Keynote Speaker:
Marcia Baron (Indiana University)

Other Speakers and Paper Titles:

Anne Barnhill [Columbia University],
What is Manipulation?

Jennifer Blumenthal-Barby [Baylor College of Medicine],
Ethically Permissible Influence: Between Reason and Coercion

Eric Cave [Arkansas State University],
Manipulation and Unsavory Seduction

Michael Cholbi [California State Polytechnic University, Pomona],
The Implications of Ego Depletion for the Ethics and Politics of Manipulation

Moti Gorin [Rice University],
Reasons and the Wrongness of Manipulation

Todd Long [California Polytechnic State University, San Luis Obispo],
Epistemic Conditions for Moral Responsibility and Information Manipulation

Amulya Mandava [Bioethics Fellow, NIH] and Joseph Millum [Bioethicist, NIH],
Manipulation and the Recruitment of Participants for Medical Research

Kate Manne [Cornell University],
On Leaving Well-Enough Alone

Michael McKenna [University of Arizona],
Resisting Pereboom’s Manipulation Argument: A Hard-Liner Takes it on the Chin

To pre-register, email pibarra@bgsu.edu