Nominee: Rachel De La Cruz
Office: Romance & Classical Studies Department
Campus Address: 203 Shatzel Hall
Phone: 372-2667 Email: rdelacru@bgsu.edu

In 1,000 words or less, describe why this person deserves recognition for the "Spirit of BG" Award:

Rachel De La Cruz is the Sr. Secretary for the Romance & Classical Studies (ROCS) Department. She is hard-working, friendly, and always has a smile for the students, faculty, and staff that come to the ROCS office.

The ROCS and German, Russian, and East Asian Languages (GREAL) departments are currently in the process of merging, and the GREAL Sr. Secretary has left the University. Rachel has done a lot to help out with book adoptions, electronic Eval Kit set-ups, and much more - not just for ROCS, but for GREAL faculty as well. And all this while maintaining her high standard of work. I think that Rachel is a great example of the Spirit of BG and is truly a "Friendly Falcon" here on campus.

I know of no BGSU staff person who better embodies the Spirit of BG than Amy Sheldrick. As secretary in the College of Health and Human Services advising office she is the face of the college to every HHS student. She provides service with a smile. Amy is a problem-solver, helping students find solutions by asking good questions, making phone calls, and finding the right person to whom to refer students. She does this all with compassion, grace, and good humor.

Amy has created a welcoming environment in the HHS advising office. Students feel respected and listened to. Her interactions with students are professional, and never with any judgment. She treats students with care because she really does care about their well-being and success.

Amy is the key to the advising office's smooth operation over the past 6 years. She has created systems and procedures that ensure accuracy and efficiency in handling a massive amount of student data – from the census through graduation.
