In 1,000 words or less, describe why this person deserves recognition for the "Spirit of BG" Award:

Jackie is an amazing person and definitely deserves the Spirit of BG award. She is energetic, fun-loving, funny, nice to everyone who comes in to our office, and is hard-working and very reliable. She helps to create a positive, inviting atmosphere in our front office from the moment a student walks through our doors. Jackie not only connects well with the students, but she is loved by all of the CC staff and many other BGSU staff and offices as well. She has a great sense of humor and seems to handle the often hectic front office activities in stride. Jackie is efficient and effective in her work, volunteers to help with various projects and makes our office run more smoothly. Jackie is a rare and wonderful classified staff and she deserves to be celebrated!

In 1,000 words or less, describe why this person deserves recognition for the "Spirit of BG" Award:

Jackie excels in instituting university goals. In an order to be as inclusive and diverse as possible at the Counseling Center, she has ordered magazines in Spanish and made our multi-language brochures available in print (formerly only available upon request) in our waiting room. Jackie addressed the physical infrastructure (our office space) by finding indigenous Latin American textiles to display on our walls. These efforts have made a substantial change to the ambiance of our space and, I believe, had made our students of color feel more welcome within our walls.

In times of increased stress, we all count on Jackie to help us with last minute projects as well as long-term projects that require systematic planning. Jackie is intimately acquainted with Microsoft systems and can organize the ideas you bring to her in a better way than you may have thought possible. Her strength lies in her constant improvement of what is given to her, she doesn't just complete projects, she adds ideas and polishes the work given to her so that by the end anything she's touched is better than it was when you first gave it to her. She has become woven into the fabric of our team and always contributes in meaningful ways. Thanks to Jackie, we had a very cool 4 wheel vehicle (for the first time since I've been here) to add to our float in the homecoming parade. Thanks to Jackie, we had an entire camper complete with a kitchen and bathroom at our tail-gating party for one of the football games. She also supplied the burgers (from cows she and her husband raise in their spare time). She is a problem solver extraordinaire and makes us all look and feel good.

Residence Life
Finally, since Jackie worked in ~~financial aid~~ and with many other campus offices prior to coming to the Counseling Center, she has helped us build symbiotic relationships with those offices. She knows many people on campus, and helps connect you with whoever can best address the need for whatever project you're working on. The Counseling Center has greatly benefited by her networking abilities both in increased communication as well as increased staff performance and work output. She is an absolute joy to have in our office, not just in terms of her work ethic and effectiveness, but also due to her sparkling personality. She makes us all laugh and keeps us happily running.

Jackie is a wonderful, supportive, uplifting presence at the counseling center. She is highly organized and efficient and often takes care of things before we even realize that they need done. She remains calm and unruffled in the midst of a sometimes chaotic environment and helps our clients to feel welcomed, care for, and safe at the counseling center. She uses her fantastic sense of humor to help lighten our mood and make us laugh during stressful moments. Jackie is an amazing professional and person and we are grateful to her for all she has done for the counseling center.
