Faith had given up a portion of her day off in celebration of the Martin Luther King Day of Service for the past 3 years to help prepare lunches for 500 in 2012 to 800 in 2014. Each year the process becomes more efficient and more complex all at the same time, but the efforts, ideas, and participation of volunteers have made it possible for these individuals to work through the complexities and complete the sandwich making, the cookie stuffing, and the lunch bag organizing in a two hour time limit. Faith was the initiator of this whole process and certainly deserves to be recognized!
