In 1,000 words or less, describe why this person deserves recognition for the "Spirit of BG" Award:

Mary is our department receptionist. I am nominating her for an award because she consistently goes above and beyond my expectations whenever she is given a task. For example, I am often interested in students' previous math instructors and grades. The first time I looked into getting this information I called Mary. I was hoping for a list of names and letter grades from students who were here at BGSU the previous semester, and was hoping to have this information in a week or so. The next day I was surprised to receive an incredibly detailed list for each student, even those who were transfer students. The information went back for several semesters and in some cases years. I have since come to know that this is a typical report from Mary. We also spent some time talking about particular students, and all of her information was extremely helpful to me. This "pursuit of excellence" and "supporting faculty and staff performance" (objectives of the university) make my job so much easier and are just part of what make her a great member of BGSU.

Nominee: Jeff Tietje

Office: Shuttle Service

Campus Address: 1 College Park

Campus Phone: 419-372-3136 Email: tietje@bgsu.edu

In 1,000 words or less, describe why this person deserves recognition for the "Spirit of BG" Award:

I am proud to nominate Jeff Tietje for the Spirit of BG award. Jeff always shows great BG Spirit and tries to use this attitude in his daily interaction with not only the students on campus but his co-workers as well. Recently Jeff took time out of his vacation schedule to collaborate with me and develop a Shuttle Service Charter Rotation System. Jeff volunteered to work with me on coming up with a strategic plan that over hauled the way the Shuttle Service offers charters to each driver. Jeff worked very hard to come up with a user friendly, fair way to handle this on going problem. Jeff is always respectful of his Supervisors and team mates on a consistent basis. Jeff is constantly offering creative ways to make the Shuttle Service better in the pursuit of excellence. Working with Jeff has always been a joy.
