In 1,000 words or less, describe why this person deserves recognition for the "Spirit of BG" Award:

Mary is the perfect embodiment of the "Spirit of BG". She is friendly and respectful to everyone who comes to our floor. Whether it be a student checking out the library for the first time, answering the question of a student worker, or assisting a research from outside of the BGSU community, she is always respectful, patient, and helpful. Mary is one of the main faces of our library because she works with all different groups of people--staff, students, faculty, and people from the community and beyond. It is this work that I think really brings out how well she works with others and works well to establish a learning environment that is safe and productive for all who use our floor. When problems arise, Mary is always quick and creative to find answers that provide long-term solutions for the operation of the floor. She also works well-beyond what is required of her to make sure that everyone--her co-workers, student employees, and patrons to ensure our library's reputation as an excellent and helpful source for research for the BGSU community and beyond.

I really can't say enough about this individual. She treats every situation, call, complaint, person with the utmost professionalism and importance. Everybody is treated with respect. She is very personable, always willing to help, and never gives up. She will work on a problem until it gets fixed and communicates with you every step of the way to let you know where she is at with it. Furthermore, if there is a concern, she encourages you to call her on her work cell phone and worries about the work orders/paperwork later as a formality in her job. Fast and great customer service this way. She is just a friendly, positive, warm person who is a joy to work with. I sure hope BGSU never loses her.

She has served the university for over 17 years, working in the Graduate College office, Continuing and Extended Education and Non-Traditional and Transfer Student Services office. Carolyn is humble and does not strive for recognition, she just gets the job done with efficiency and pride. She is very much a Falcon at heart and team spirited, working with students, staff and faculty. Carolyn is very much deserving of this award even though she will not get overly excited about. She is very organized and keeps the schedule going for Dr. Barbara Henry (Assistant Vice-President of Non-Traditional and Transfer Student Services) and her staff. Carolyn is the heartbeat of our office and has more accomplishments that can be listed here. I am proud to work with her as a student, and I am sure our office staff will agree that she is a valued employee. She is truly an asset to Bowling Green State University and the Non-Traditional and Transfer Student Services office.

I've worked with Jackie at the CC for the past year, and she is always ready to lend a hand or an encouraging word. Jackie began working as a front-desk assistant at the Counseling Center a year ago. I love Jackie's combination of matter-of-factness, energy, humor, and kindness. When trainees get anxious, she lightens the mood and helps keep spirits up. She attends all Counseling Center events with infectious enthusiasm. I am certain she contributes positively to the experiences of students who come to the counseling center seeking assistance, both through her own pleasant demeanor in interacting with these students, and by contributing to an atmosphere at the Counseling Center that helps counselors stay centered and do better work with their clients. Jackie is a joy to have at the Counseling Center and captures the vitality and community that help make BG a great place to learn, grow, and work.
