In 1,000 words or less, describe why this person deserves recognition for the "Spirit of BG" Award:

This nomination is to recognize Kristin Hagemyer for the Spirit of BG Award. She is a full time Administrative Assistant in the Office of Research Compliance (ORC). Kristin is extremely dedicated to serving BGSU and the ORC. The most recent example of this dedication was demonstrated during March and April, 2014 when, due to unforeseen circumstances, Kristin was the only full time staff member in the ORC. She not only completed her regular duties, but took on the duties of her supervisor.

Some of the additional tasks Kristin took on during this time included: administering the Human Subjects Review Board and Intuitional Animal Care and Use Committee monthly meetings, processing all reviews that were conducted at the monthly committee meetings, working with the HSRB Chair to resolve issues and concerns that arose, preparing BGSU's HSRB federalwide assurance renewal paperwork, and hiring a student employee.

Because of Kristin's strong work ethic, attention to detail, ability to multi-task, the willingness to ask questions and problem solve, the ORC ran smoothly during this time. The most noteworthy aspect of this situation is that Kristin did not let the stress bother her, nor did she ever complain. Kristin always had an extremely positive attitude and when questioned about the work load, she stated very honestly that she loves working at BGSU and loves coming to work each day. Kristin Hagemyer is the Spirit of BG!
