In 1,000 words or less, describe why this person deserves recognition for the "Spirit of BG" Award:

Teresa Wright Mayo is an outstanding Classified Staff employee. She works as a custodian at the Stroh Center and also supervises many student workers. She has told me many times that she "takes great pride in readying the Stroh Center for everyone from the President of the United States to commencements to the Women's basketball teams to big concerts". I first met Teresa from my years at the Chapman Community at Kohl Hall when she was a custodian there. She took immense pride in providing a clean and friendly atmosphere for students there and students loved and respected her for it. She was always respectful and helpful to staff and faculty there, as I know she is at the Stroh.

It is a joy to see her hard work and dedication, in spite of her many, many hours at the Stroh, getting it ready for tournaments, concerts, and other events.

Teresa accomplishes all this in addition to taking care of her mother, children and family members. She is an exemplary embodiment of Classified Staff and richly deserves the Spirit of BG Award.
