In 1,000 words or less, describe why this person deserves recognition for the "Spirit of BG" Award:

Tifanie, over the last six months since starting, has been a positive presence in the English Department. Most recently, for her first time, she was responsible for coordinating interviews for a new hire position. She made the process look effortless and as though she had done it many times before. I applaud her patience and professionalism that she shows at all times.
