In 1,000 words or less, describe why this person deserves recognition for the "Spirit of BG" Award:

At the Stroh Center during the Friday Evening Commencement Ceremony an elderly gentleman who was very frail, suffering from blood cancer fell down the stairs trying to find his seat and cut his arm. Angela immediately helped the family walk him to a window seat to sit down. Noticing that he was bleeding she went to the restroom and brought back paper towels to help stop the bleeding. After she had helped them with the paper towels she sent staff to get the paramedics who bandaged the wound and made sure he was all right.

While the paramedics were bandaging the wound, Angela went the Commencement Staff and secured 4 of the reserved seats at the top of the bowl so he and his family didn't have to walk down the stairs again to watch his grand daughters wedding.

The family was very thankful, and appreciative of everything Angela did for them.

After that she went on to manage the event and stayed late to make sure everything was cleaned before the 10:00 a.m. Commencement the next morning.

I believe she went above and beyond to demonstrate BGSU's customer service values.
