In 1,000 words or less, describe why this person deserves recognition for the "Spirit of BG" Award:

Annette contributes a lot to the success of Falcon Outfitters and other departments. She has done a fantastic job on clearing up space in Falcon Outfitter's storage, during a time of substantial changes to postal services' operations. Her hardwork has contributed greatly to the success of Falcon Outfitters, but also the success of the student package center. By limiting the inventory on hand, she has freed up enough space to drastically improve the success of postal operations. Her ingenuity has improved not only Falcon Outfitters by making the operations more cost efficient, but also making the customer service of the student package center a greater success. Her hardwork contributes to student success throughout the campus. Because of her ability to keep Falcon Outfitters functioning at a top level while enhancing another departments success. BGSU's students now receive their packages. textbooks. and
