In 1,000 words or less, describe why this person deserves recognition for the "Spirit of BG" Award:

Danielle has been saving lives this year in the Department of English. Her assistance especially to our graduate students, with last-minute copies, getting residency requirements taken care of, making calls to find information they need, and making sure preview days go smoothly, have been phenomenal. She transformed the graduate computer lab into a cozy, welcoming space where students could work individually or collaboratively. Her support for faculty also goes well above her job description. Just recently, when I was traveling to a conference, Danielle stood ready as I gathered materials and made sure we were well equipped for our booth setup, which included taking a personal amplification device to support my vocal issues. Danielle has worked so hard on making our building more welcoming, more celebratory of achievements, and more supportive of everyone's well-being. On top of all of this, Danielle has been
