In 1,000 words or less, describe why this person deserves recognition for the "Spirit of BG" Award:

BGSU clearly captures the nature of its classified staff in our mission statement. The first sentence of that mission statement perfectly reflects Ms. Hammersmith, but the work that she does to support the Chapman Learning Community, and the entire BGSU Learning Community Network, is not always seen by those outside of our office. As the mission states, "Bowling Green State University provides educational experiences inside and outside the classroom that enhance the lives of students, faculty and staff." Without Lenae, many of the innovative experiential learning opportunities we afford our students throughout our seventeen learning communities would simply not be possible. From arranging transportation to making reservations, from connecting with community partners to helping dispense Klein Fund monies, from enrolling students to working with schedule development. Lenae exemplifies a model BGSU employee.
