Position Announcement: University Mentor

The Office of Field Experiences in the College of Education and Human Development at Bowling Green State University (BGSU) is in need of qualified individuals for employment as University Mentors. Individuals must have:

- Master's degree
- Teaching license
- Minimum 3 years of classroom teaching experience
- Basic computer proficiency required

POSITION DETAILS

Expectations of a University Mentor can be found on our web page (http://www.bgsu.edu/education-and-human-development/teacher-education-program/field-experiences/experiences/current-university-mentors.html). Details include:

- Part-time position
- Salary based on supervision assignment
- Mileage reimbursement

APPLICATION INFORMATION

Interested parties should submit:

- Signed cover letter
- Resumé/vitae
- Official transcripts indicating latest degree
- Two letters of reference (within the last one year, dated and signed)

Please send questions or application materials to:

Benjamin E. Martin, M.A.
Director of Field Experiences
Office of Field Experiences
Bowling Green State University
College of Education and Human Development
101 Education Building
419-372-3950
benmart@bgsu.edu