

Institutional Research

Economic Impact of BGSU

	Year 2003-2004
BGSU Non-Student Employees	3,945
BGSU Student Employees	4,712
Jobs Generated by In-State Purchases	2,128
Jobs Generated by Capital Spending	920
Total Jobs Attributable to BGSU	11,705
University Spending for Current Operations
University Spending for Current Operations	$346.2 million
Capital Improvements Spending	$23.0 million
Employee Compensation	$186.1 million
Employee Spending in the Local Economy	$145.2 million
Spending by Ohio Resident Students	$193.0 million
Spending by Non-Ohio Resident Students	$53.7 million
Visitor Spending	$29.5 million
Public and Private Sector Grants and Contracts
Public and Private Sector Grants and Contracts	$28.9 million
Alumni Living in Ohio	88,293
Long-Term Economic Dividends *higher standards of living *more highly regarded employment *greater economic security and stability *less dependency on government assistance *better access to health care *better dietary and health practices *longer life spans *healthier children
*better academic performance of children *less involvement with the criminal justice system *higher voting rates
*more volunteer work and charitable donations *greater community service and leadership

Source: Inter-University Council / Office of Institutional Research

A recent report on BGSU's economic impact produced by Dr. Michael Carroll of the Center for Policy Analysis and Public Service is available here.