The Department of Computer Science will complete the registration for this section. Return this form to the Department of Computer Science, 221 Hayes Hall. Note that these courses are graded S/U.

*Undergraduates working through the Co-Op Office can receive a maximum of six hours of credit for CS 3900. Graduate students and other undergraduates can receive a maximum of three hours of credit for CS 3900/5890. An excess credit fee is charged to students registered for more than 18 credit hours in a given term. If registration for this course would put you over 18 hours, you can split the credit among two or more semesters or use credit-by-exam to obtain the credit. Registration must be completed by Thursday of the first week of classes in the semester when credit is to be obtained.

*‡You must submit a written report with this form summarizing the work done. See http://www.bgsu.edu/departments/compsci/policies/coop.html for details.
