BGSU Summer Salzburg Program
Personal and Academic Conduct Agreement

The Summer Salzburg Program is governed by Bowling Green State University Summer Salzburg Program and Education Abroad guidelines; the Bowling Green State University Student Code of Conduct; and the rules of the Salzburg host institution, Inernationale Ferienkurse für Deutsche Sprache und Germanistik (IFK).

The most important areas covered by these statutes are academic conduct, house rules at the different residences, and actions that create risk for oneself or others. Specific examples of possible violations include (but are not limited to):

- Cheating or plagiarizing on course work or exams.
- Spending the night in a room to which one is not assigned or allowing an unassigned student or guest to sleep in one's room.
- Personal behavior or interpersonal interaction that puts oneself at risk, threatens fellow students, or disrupts students' academic or cultural experience.
- Use of illicit drugs or use of prescription drugs in violation of medical guidelines.
- Consumption of alcohol by those under the age of 21.
- Consumption of alcohol (regardless of age) that leads to disruptive or threatening behavior.

My signature below confirms:

- my commitment to conduct myself in accordance with Bowling Green State University Summer Salzburg Program and Education Abroad guidelines; the Bowling Green State University Student Code of Conduct; and the rules of the Salzburg host institution, Internationale Ferienkurse für Deutsche Sprache und Germanistik (IFK), while participating in the BGSU Summer Salzburg Program.
- my understanding that severe and/or repeated violations of program, university, and/or host institution rules are grounds for dismissal from the program.
- my understanding that students dismissed prior to the program's conclusion are themselves financially responsible for post-dismissal housing and return travel arrangements.
