

YOU COULD BE WORKING IN SPORTS TELEVISION FOR COLLEGE CREDIT!

FSN Ohio needs interns to assist in daily activities for...

Public Relations/Advertising Sales Intern

Assist with media relations by pitching story ideas to regional newspapers and radio stations. Compile press clippings into a monthly clip pack for distribution. Read local newspapers for any mentions of FSN Ohio. Assist with the writing and distribution of press releases. Strengthen PowerPoint skills by assisting in the creation of presentations. Process sales orders and organize ad sales promotions. Support all administrative duties and, if needed, help with the implementation of community relations and/or promotional events.

Programming Intern

Assist the programming department with the preparation and distribution of monthly programming schedules and information. Strengthen computer skills by inputting schedule changes, daily ratings information, and pro/college schedules of televised games. Build communication skills by contacting newspapers, TV guides, program producers, other networks, colleges, and professional teams. Assist with administrative duties as needed.

Production Intern*

Assist with the on-site production of events such as Browns Training Camp, Cavaliers pre- and post-game shows, and high school football. Log and catalog highlight tapes of Cavaliers, Reds, Blue Jackets, etc. Attend miscellaneous shoots and assist producer/director on an as needed basis. Assist with administrative duties as needed.

* This internship involves both administrative work at the office and production work on-location. Current or previous enrollment in television production classes and/or hands-on experience in screening and editing videotape is helpful.

Please email resumes to Leah Martinez leah.martinez@foxsports.net