Way to go, Wendy and Susan!

Good luck to Wendy Manning and Susan Brown. They worked at breakneck speed to submit a grant application offered by ASPE to establish a National Center for Marriage Research. Much thanks to all those who contributed in the effort.

Post Traumatic Stress Research Forum

The Office of Research Collaboration is planning a "Post Traumatic Stress (PTS) research forum" for fall semester. The purpose is to gather UT and BGSU faculty researchers interested in PTS research, in order to share their research interests with one another (i.e., brief 5-10 minute presentations). If you would be interested in this event, please contact Jason Roth in the Office of Research Collaboration at UT: 419-530-2936 or jason.roth4@utoledo.edu. More about the Office of Research Collaboration is at this link.

THANKS to AL!

Al taught a fabulous growth curve modeling workshop. His workshop was well organized, skillfully conducted, and chock full of important statistical information. A special bonus was that Al patiently addressed ALL of his students' questions.

Stay tuned

We will be posting our exciting seminar and workshop schedule for the fall. If you have suggestions for workshops or seminar speakers - please email cfd@bgsu.edu.
