

Visiting Canadian Author Steven Hayward

Dr. Steven Hayward is a Toronto born writer who is currently an Assistant Professor of English at John Carroll University in Cleveland Heights, Ohio. A winner of the Upper Canada Writers' Craft Award, Professor Hayward is the author of Buddha Stevens and Other Stories and the more recent The Secret Mitzvah of Lucio Burke. In addition to his creative work, he has published on literary theory, film studies, and Canadian literature topics. In his teaching, he emphasizes an approach to writing that encourages students to tap into their own creative outlook to describe human experiences in unique ways.

Writing the Great Canadian Novel: A Guide for Americans

Thursday, February 22, 4 P.M.

308 BTSU

Reception to Follow

Free and Open to the Public

This event is made possible by the Canadian Studies Center at Bowling Green State University and with the assistance of the Government of Canada.