

APPLICATION FOR DR. STEVEN O. LUDD SCHOLARSHIP, 2009

(DEADLINE: Friday, Feb. 27, 2009 - Department of Political Science)

Facts about the Scholarship:

- A. The Dr. Steven O. Ludd Law Society Scholarship was created in September, 2004 by former students of Dr. Ludd to honor him for his many years of teaching and advising excellence at Bowling Green State University. Dr. Ludd began teaching at the University in 1976, and for years served as a professor in the Political Science Department and advisor to the BGSU Law Society. During his 30 years at the University, he touched the lives of thousands of students, fueling their desires to go on to law school and fulfill their dreams as attorneys, judges and other law related professions.
- B. The intent of the donor(s) is to establish an endowment to be known as the Dr. Steven O. Ludd Law Society Scholarship Fund. The purpose of the Fund is to support current BGSU students who wish to pursue a law degree upon graduation.
- C. Award Eligibility and Selection Criteria:
  - 1. Candidates will be senior students in good standing with a minimum of a 3.5 grade point average.
  - 2. Candidates may be from any academic discipline on campus.
  - 3. Candidates will be active members of the BGSU Law Society.
  - 4. Candidates will have taken the LSAT exam and applied to law school.
  - 5. Candidates will demonstrate leadership in extra-curricular and community activities.
- D. The selection of the recipients will be made by a selection committee consisting of the BGSU Law Society Advisor, Faculty Representative and three alumni donors to the Fund.
- E. Students will complete application in the Spring of their senior year, with the monies being awarded in the Spring of their senior year.
- C. The application form and all accompanying materials, including letters of recommendation, must be submitted to the Department of Political Science, 124 Williams Hall, by 4:30 p.m., Friday, February 27, 2009.

The recipient will be notified the first week in March, 2009.
