

Application Procedures for Graduate Study in French at BGSU

To be sent to the Graduate College:

1. Complete the online Application for Admission to the Graduate College <https://gradcollege.bgsu.edu/apply/> and mail the Application fee (check or money order payable to BGSU), to the Graduate College. The address is on the application.
2. Have 2 official transcripts from all institutions attended sent to the Graduate College. ("Official means that it is sent to us directly from the institution, not issued to and forwarded by the student.)
3. Have your GRE scores sent to the Graduate College (the General Test only; no Subject test is required). The GRE is now computerized; the old paper-and-pencil version is no longer given. You can take the test by appointment at Sylvan Learning Centers throughout the U.S. (1-800-GRE-CALL). Test results are mailed to institutions designated by the test taker 10 – 15 days after the test is taken. BGSU's institution code is: 1069. Please be advised that we must receive your GRE scores before your application can be completely processed.

To be sent to the Department of Romance and Classical Studies:

1. Complete the Application for Financial Support and mail to:

Graduate Coordinator/ French
Department of Romance and Classical Studies
203 Shatzel Hall
Bowling Green State University
Bowling Green, OH 43403-0215

2. Have 3 recommendations sent to the Graduate Coordinator:

- ◆ At least 1 and preferably 2 of these recommendations should be from someone who will comment on your proficiency in French. Language Reference Form
- ◆ 1 could be a general letter of recommendation. No form is provided. General recommendations may be sent by e-mail to rberg@bgsu.edu, by mail to the Graduate Coordinator's address above.

The policy of the Department of Romance and Classical Studies is to award aid to qualified students as applications are completed, and while positions remain available. It is best, therefore, to send/have sent the above materials as soon as possible (preferably by February 15 for France or February 1 for Quebec).

Upon admission to our program, you will receive another form from the AYA (Academic Year Abroad) office. There will be another fee to pay at that time (approximately $25.) for the processing of the AYA documents.
