Forensics, Speech & Debate

“Grant-in-Aid” Scholarships

AUDITIONS FOR 2009-2010

*Hard copies of forms are available from the School of Communication Studies: Department of Interpersonal Communication, 302 West Hall, BGSU.
Applications must be completed and returned to the School of Communication Studies by February 16, 2009.*

Talent “Grant-in-Aid” Scholarship Policy

You need not be a Communication Major to apply. However, you must be enrolled as a full time BGSU student during the year your grant applies. Forensics & Debate Scholarships are awarded for one term or a full academic year. A Committee from Forensics, Speech and Debate will review applications and auditions. Recommendations are made to the Department of Interpersonal Communication based on the quality of the audition, review of recommendations, past contributions and the needs of the program. Awards are made during the spring term of each academic year.

Audition Format

Applications have 5-10 minutes in which to audition. In addition to a brief interview session, auditions consist of the presentation of a forensics event, which may be from this year's competitive season or an original composition of one of the following types:

- | | |
|--------------------------------|---|
| 1. An Interpretive Event | Example: Prose, Poetry, Dramatic or Duo Interpretation |
| 2. A Public Address Speech | Example: Informative, Persuasion/Oratory, Sales or Broadcasting |
| 3. A limited Preparation Event | Example: Impromptu or Extemporaneous Speaking |
| 4. A Debate | Comprised of the 1 AC (first Affirmative Constructive) and evidence |

Scholarship Responsibilities

Forensics and Debate Participation

- Participation in a minimum of eight (8) tournaments over the course of the academic season.
- Three (3) events are required to travel, reflecting each of three (3) genre' (interpretation, public address, limited preparation/debate
- Target a minimum of five (5) events for season tournament participation.
- Attend and participate in forensics meetings, weekly scheduled coaching (min. ½ hr. per event), course duties (extemp. file) special events, showcases, class periods and team.
- Participate in state and national competitions, if so assigned by the Director of Forensics and Debate. Participation is mandatory if qualified.
- Either participate in or help to organize and run the BGSU Falcon Classic Forensics Tournament hosted each fall term.

IPC199/399 Enrollment and Participation

Recipients are required to enroll in IPC199 or IPC399 “Forensics Activities” in order to fulfill “Grant-in-Aid” Scholarship commitments and be allowed to travel to tournaments.

Maintain Good Academic Standing

Recipients are required to maintain a 2.0 G.P.A., be a full time B.G.S.U. undergraduate student, be eligible for intercollegiate forensics competition, and be making adequate progress toward degree completion.

Forensics and Debate Prioritization

As a recipient, you are expected to maintain academic coursework as a first priority and commitment to the Forensics, Speech and Debate Program as a second priority. Other commitments such as employment, participation in extramural activities, social activities, campus organizational involvement and other co-curricular involvement must be prioritized below these first two commitments. Weekend tournament travel and weekly coaching is mandatory.

Aid Acceptance and Goal Setting

Sign and return the scholarship acceptance form, enclosed with your scholarship notification letter by the deadline. If you decline the aid, you must do so, in writing, to the School of Communication Studies. Attend an orientation meeting during the first week of classes for scholarship recipients.
