GRADUATE NON-DEGREE PROGRAMS

Graduate Non-Degree Student

A student who has earned a four-year degree in higher education and who wishes to enroll in graduate or undergraduate courses without pursuing another degree may enroll as a Graduate Non-Degree Student. Such a student is not limited to the number of graduate or undergraduate courses which may be taken at the University. However, for students enrolling in graduate classes, only nine graduate hours will transfer to a graduate degree program. There is no application fee when applying as a Graduate Non-Degree Student.

Formal Undergraduate/Graduate Admission to the University

Any student wishing to earn an undergraduate degree at Bowling Green State University must apply for formal admission to the University. Deadlines for submitting applications for admission to a term often occur several months before a term begins. The student should contact the undergraduate Office of Admissions, 110 McFall Center (419.372.BGSU) to obtain an application and answers to any questions about the application procedure. Web site: <http://go2.bgsu.edu/choose>

Students interested in pursuing a graduate degree should contact Graduate Admissions in McFall Center 419.372.2791.
Web site: www.bgsu.edu/colleges/gradcol

Any questions about enrollment can be directed to the Office of Registration and Records, 110 Administration Building (419.372.4444).
