

Master's Family and Consumer Sciences (MFCS Degree)

Specialization in Food and Nutrition

MFCS degree offered on-campus or on-line

Curriculum****

15 hours of FN courses such as:

Family and Community Nutrition	FN 6070	(3)
Micronutrients Through the Life Span	FN 6090	(3)
Macronutrients for Human Nutrition	FN 6100	(3)
Clinical Nutrition	FN 6110	(3)
Other FN graduate courses		(3)
Research Methods	FCS 6260 or other selection	(3)
Statistics	EDFI 6410 or other selection	(3)
Thesis or	FN 6990	(4-6)
Master's Project (6)	FN 6910
Seminar	by advisement	(3)
Cognate; 3 courses of concentrated study by advisement		(9)
Minimum Hours Required for Graduation
Plan I, Thesis		37
or
Plan II, Master's Project		39

* This is a two academic year program with a typical pattern for full-time students of Fall/Spring, Fall/Spring, and some summer work.