

Master's of Food and Nutrition (MFN Degree)

MFN degree offered on-campus or on-line

Curriculum*

15 hours of F&N courses such as:

Family and Community Nutrition	FN 6070	(3)
Micronutrients Through the Life Span	FN 6090	(3)
Macronutrients for Human Nutrition	FN 6100	(3)
Clinical Nutrition	FN 6110	(3)
Other F&N graduate courses		(3)
Research Methods	FCS 6260 or other selection	(3)
Statistics	EDFI 6410 or other selection	(3)
Thesis or Project	F&N 6990 or F&N 6910	(4-6)
Seminar, by advisement		3
Cognate; 3 courses of concentrated study by advisement		(9)
Minimum Hours Required for Graduation		37-39

* This is a two academic year program with a typical pattern for full-time students of Fall/Spring, Fall/Spring, and some summer work.