You may be able to reduce your federal tax liability!

Bowling Green State University is an eligible educational institution, which must furnish this statement to you following the IRS regulations. This information may help you determine your eligibility or the person who claims you as a tax dependent's eligibility, for any Hope, or Lifetime Learning tax credits on IRS Form 8863 corresponding to the annual tax return. For more information about these credits and/or the forms, please contact the IRS: www.irs.ustreas.gov or www.irs.gov/publications/p970, or you may call 1-800-829-1040.

Universities have the option of filling out boxes 1 or 2, as a starting point. Dependent on that choice corresponding boxes of 3-9 may have pertinent amounts. Box 10 is reserved for those parents who may have opted to take out Tuition Insurance directly from an Insurance company-that company would send you the information. BGSU does not directly provide nor offer that type of insurance, hence no $ amount in Box 10.

BOX 2 contains a summary amount reflecting what the IRS considers as qualifying tuition, fees and related expenses. BOX 4 contains any adjustments made for a prior reporting year's amounts from Box 2 of a prior year's 1098-T. BOX 5, what the IRS defines as "scholarships and/or grants" posted to the student's account for the calendar year. BOX 6 may indicate any adjustments to scholarship and grant amounts reported on a prior year's 1098-T form's box #4. BOX 7 indicates that BGSU normally charges/bills for spring tuition in the previous November and/or December.

BOX 8: Shows whether you are considered to have carried at least one-half the normal full-time course load at BGSU for at least one academic period during the reporting calendar year. BOX 9: Shows whether you are considered to be enrolled in a program leading to a graduate degree, graduate certificate level, or other recognized graduate level educational credential. Graduate students may only qualify for the Lifetime Learning tax credit.

Please note BGSU and its staff cannot serve as a personal tax advisor or tax consultant. How you have filed and will file your tax return(s) is a personal business matter of yours and/or your chosen tax service company/person. If above boxes show information, see enclosed sheet for additional details.
