

The purchasing process made easy.

CDW·G, in cooperation with Bowling Green State University, is proud to offer contract pricing through our contract agreement number: OC110204.

Exclusive CDW·G pricing on HP printers for Inter-University Council of Ohio universities.

In support of the Bowling Green State University procurement processes, CDW·G and BGSU are offering authorized BGSU buyers contract pricing on technology products purchased through CDW·G. When it comes to providing great technology and services, CDW·G delivers.

CDW·G provides Bowling Green University with:

- A dedicated account team that leads the industry in public-sector customer service and product knowledge, and is accessible by phone, e-mail and the web
- A competitively bid contract (NJPA/BGSU agreement OC110204) to give you competitive pricing on hardware, software and services — without having to go through the bid process
- A wide breadth of products from leading brand-name manufacturers including: Epson, APC, Hewlett-Packard and many others. This agreement also includes exclusive pricing on Samsung LCDs and plasma displays, and IBM servers/storage
- Fast solutions to technology needs and same-day shipping
- Free ground 2-3 day delivery from our Chicago distribution center
