Information about print copies at BGSU and links to catalog records

The screenshot shows the OLinks – Find It! interface. At the top, there is a yellow header with the logo and navigation links: "OL Home", "Research Databases", and "Contact a Librarian". The main content area displays the article citation: "Warren, Steven F., et al. 'What automated vocal analysis reveals about the vocal production and language learning environment of young children with autism.' Journal of Autism and Developmental Disorders, v. 40 issue 5, 2010, p. 555-569." Below the citation, there are three sections: "Full text online:" with a blue button for "Full text of this article in the EJC"; "Copies in your library:" with text indicating BGSU has a paper and links to "View details in the Bowling Green State University library catalog" and "View holdings statewide"; and "Other information about this article:" listing ISSN, Electronic ISSN, DOI, Citation source, and Database record number. On the right side, there are dropdown menus for "Find similar items at" (set to EJC) and "Format citation as:" (set to APA), both with "Go" buttons. A "Persistent link to this page" is also visible. At the bottom, there is a footer: "OLinks – The OhioLINK Linking Service. You are connecting from Bowling Green State University."

Most browsers and word processors will allow you to copy this citation and paste it into a document with the formatting intact.

The window that gives the local library holdings also includes a link to search by title in the BGSU catalog. Sometimes additional electronic copies of the article may be found by clicking on this link. The window also contains a link to View Holdings Statewide to look for holdings of the book or periodical from OhioLINK Libraries throughout the state.
