

The Board of Trustees Leadership Scholarship Bowling Green State University

The Board of Trustees Leadership Scholarship was established by the BGSU Board of Trustees in conjunction with the creation of the President's Leadership Academy and in support of one of the University's ongoing priorities, which is to promote a culture of leadership at BGSU.

A $1,000 scholarship will be awarded to two full-time (minimum of 12 semester hours) rising sophomores, juniors, or seniors (who have a minimum of two semesters of study to complete before graduation) with a minimum accumulative grade point average of 2.75. Applicants should also exhibit leadership potential.

Completed application packet which includes: application, supporting materials, official transcripts (or your last grading report from MyBGSU which lists your GPA), and two letters of recommendation (at least one from a faculty member) must be submitted no later than February 24, 2012 and mailed to:

KEY LEADERSHIP ACTIVITIES

On a separate sheet, list current and past activities outside of formal classes that you believe demonstrate your leadership abilities and potential.

ESSAY

Submit a formal, typewritten essay (250-350 words), discussing your leadership philosophy, what it means to be a leader, and how you intend to contribute to the culture of leadership at BGSU, and, generally, in society. This is a critical component of the review process.

LETTERS OF REFERENCE

Please give the two forms below to individuals (non-relatives) who have known you for a period of time and can attest to/document your leadership potential. At least one letter should be from a faculty member. Letters must be received by the application deadline of February 24, 2012. It is the applicant's responsibility to insure the submission of the letters of reference by the deadline.

STUDENT RECOMMENDATION FORM

The student whose name appears below is applying for the 2012-2013 Board of Trustees Leadership Scholarship at Bowling Green State University. Recipients are selected based upon leadership potential, an essay regarding their leadership, and a minimum grade point average of 2.75 (on a standard 4.0 scale). The selection committee requires two letters of reference from each applicant. The deadline for returning letters of recommendation is February 24, 2012. Letters should be forwarded to:
