

Application Checklist

All of the following items are needed to complete your Honors Program application. Incomplete applications will not be evaluated. You may send materials in separately or all together.

Needed:

- Honors Program Application for Admission.
- High school transcript(s). A separate one from the one you sent to Admissions is required.
- Application Response (200 words or less): Describe your long term academic and career goals and how the Honors Program will help you achieve those goals.
- Critical Analysis (Typical response is 250 to 500 words): Pick one of the current national or international news editorials provided to you by the Honors Program. Write a response to the news editorial about the biases the author possesses. For instance, if the author seems to be biased in any way, or omits any important information, make sure you mention it in your essay.
- Essay (500 words or less): Please respond to both of these questions for your essay. What is the purpose of a University liberal arts education? What role should the University educated person play in society?
- All pieces of the application must be sent to: Honors Program, BGSU, 209E Harshman, 125 N. Mercer Rd., Bowling Green, OH 43403-0229.

Due to an increase in applications, we may limit enrollment into the Honors Program. Sending in your completed application as soon as possible is highly recommended.

The application deadline is March 1. The application deadline for the Full Centennial Scholarship Competition is December 1.

Please note: You need not wait for your acceptance into the Honors Program to sign up for the Honors Learning Community in Harshman Dunbar. After your acceptance to BGSU you should receive information from the Office of Residence Life about housing. You may sign up for 'Honors Learning Community' on the BGSU website under the Office of Residence Life by selecting the Honors Learning Community under special interest groups. The Honors Learning Community is optional, however many Honors students find this to be a good choice.
