Please list Honors courses you plan to take this semester or next.
HNRS 2010 must be taken the first fall you are in the program followed immediately in the spring by HNRS 2020. This is a requirement for all Honors students. It is highly encouraged to take HNRS 2010 before HNRS 2020. At least one Honors course must be taken during your first semester of enrollment in the Honors Program. All Honors Program students must complete at least fifteen credit hours of Honors course work, including the core curriculum HNRS 2010 and HNRS 2020, by the end of their fourth semester in the Program. Please refer to the requirements for Graduation with Honors in order to plan for this.
On a separate page, respond to the following to the best of your ability.
Essay: Directions: Respond to the following quotation in an essay of 300 – 500 words. In your response, make sure that you build and defend an argument in favor of a clearly defined stance. Your stance should be thoughtfully supported with well-chosen reasons and evidence. Furthermore, your reasons and evidence probably should consider and address the ways in which your own values, background and experience figure into the stance that you adopt. Note that it is not necessary to research, read or refer to the texts from which the quotation is taken; we are looking for original, personal responses to the quote. Quotation: "To travel is to discover that everyone is wrong about other [places]." – Aldous Huxley
Additional Information: If desired, please provide additional information on special circumstances or experiences you feel might provide insight into your potential for success in the Honors Program. This can be addressing a poor grade, a personal hardship, additional experience not represented above, or any information that will assist the Honors Program in making an informed admission decision. Please explain such information in a single page or less.
