

Guidelines for Student Organization Membership

1. Membership in student organizations shall be open to BGSU students without regard to race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, handicap, or national origin, except in the cases of designated fraternal organizations which are exempted by federal law from Title IX Regulations concerning discrimination on the basis of sex.
2. Student organizations are to inform the University community of their membership criteria and processes, including membership application deadlines. Outreach efforts to groups that are typically underrepresented in student organizations should be made.
3. Membership selection criteria must be relevant to the goals and objectives of the organization.
