BGSU ICE ARENA

Program Overview

- >> Curriculum follows US Figure Skating Learn to Skate programming
- >> High quality, progressive skill development for the beginner hockey player, figure skater and recreational skater
- >> Focuses on correct technique of the fundamental basic elements to enable lifelong recreational skating or the ability to move competently into advanced testing and/or competitive skating
- >> Promotes physical fitness through a fun, safe skating experience
- >> All BGSU Ice Arena Learn To Skate instructors are accomplished instructors dedicated to providing consistent, engaging, quality instruction

Program Details

Each session is held for 6 weeks in which participants attend once a week, Monday and Wednesday for a 30 minute lesson.

- >> Registrations are accepted on a first come, first serve basis until full in order to keep a small student to instructor ratio. Registration prior to the first day of class is strongly recommended
- >> Ages 3 to Adult
- >> Skate rentals included
- >> $12 US Figure Skating Basic Skills membership (one time per year, July 1 - June 30)
 - Skills packet
 - Achievement Certificates
 - Badges
- >> Public Skate Punch Pass
- >> Sport helmet required for ages 3-5; recommended for all beginners. Must be provided by participant.
- >> Layered, comfortable clothing and gloves/mittens are recommended
- >> Please arrive and have skaters ready at least 10 minutes prior to class time
- >> Parents are welcome to watch lessons, but please see that your presence is not distracting to your child's participation.
