Greek Leadership Team

Meet Tuesdays at 7PM

One great benefit of being on the GLT is they work with planning retreats, so you want to work on those, or have ideas, please be encouraged to apply.

Purple Lights – If you have an outdoor light, put it on your front porch to promote awareness of domestic violence and abuse. October is the month to bring awareness to these issues.

Leadership Retreat Feedback – Working on the leadership retreat for January; what would we like to see?

Email Katie if you have a feedback about what you would like changed about the retreat, or if you will not be attending, let her know what you would like to see. This retreat will be for members of your chapter's executive board.

Four Council Powderpuff - All of the Greek Chapters are invited to play! It will be on Friday nights around 6PM for 4 weeks; they are working on holding the championship game in the Doyt. Fraternities can have 4 coaches Sororities must have at least 6 players for a team, but ideally 12 players.

Drug, Alcohol and Sexual Offenses Coalition – Member Needed

Next meeting: Thursday, October 22, 2009 from 10:30-11:30am in BTSU 309

The coalition meets monthly to develop and coordinate prevention and

Homecoming Week Events – Fill out the form for Greek Affairs to let them know what your events are. This is important to let other offices and people know what’s going on.

Grade Release Forms – Please turn this form in as soon as possible to the Greek Affairs office. New members must attend the Greek Challenge Program.

Mary Phillips - Advisor

Greek Challenge – Sunday 10/4 from 6:00pm to 9:30pm in the Perry Field House. This event is MANDATORY for all new members. This event will be very different from past years: interactive, playing, having fun, learning. Members are encouraged to either wear their letters or comfortable BG apparel. Prizes are available!

Old Business

1/2+1 bylaws change: This was voted on and was not passed by the council.

New Business

Secretary – No applications at this time. Application will be emailed out over the Listserve.

Mission, Vision, Purpose

Tonight: Definitions and decide what’s best for IGC

Purpose: The reason the group exists; changes the least

Mission: What the group wants to accomplish; will change with group

Vision: How the Group will accomplish the mission; will change with group

What should we have?

Purpose and a Mission

Purpose is the most important; Mission can change over time.

Maybe we need all three?
