

Vaclav Havel, Disturbing the Peace

"Every work of art points somewhere

The Institute for the Study of Culture and Society presents:

A Story of Courage: One Voice

An interactive symposium on breaking the cycle of silence

Panel Moderator: Burton Beerman, Artist in Residence, Composer/Librettist of the intermedia dance-opera Jesus' Daughter

Panel Members:

Dr. Sandra Bloom, Associate Medical Director, Northwestern Institute of Psychiatry (She is presently working on a book to be published entitled Creating Sanctuary: Towards the Evolution of Sane Communities):
"Bridging the Black Hole of Trauma: Victims, Artists and Society"

Kleia Luckner, R.N., J.D., Director of the Center for Women's Health at the Toledo Hospital: "Early Identification of Family Violence"

Brenda Wyatt, Community Activist: "Responses to Jesus' Daughter and to some of the issues the opera addresses"

Art Neal, Emeritus Distinguished University Professor of Sociology now at Oregon State: "The Abuse of Power" and the human nervous system."

beyond itself: it transcends itself and its author: it creates a special force field around itself that moves the human mind

When: April 19, 1996
Where: 115 Olscamp, Bowling Green State University
Time: 1:00-3:00 p.m.
Reception to Follow